

EIGHT-CUP SATURDAY

A little coffee break, with room for a different choice.

TODAY AT THE TABLE

R / REGULAR COFFEE

Brewed coffee. No milk or sugar added.

D / DECAF COFFEE

Brewed coffee. No milk or sugar added.

T / PACKET TEA

Choose a labelled packet. Ask Jun for hot water.

W / DRINKING WATER

Water is available here. Coffee is optional.

YOUR CUP, YOUR CHOICE

Milk or oat drink? Ask Jun; both stay in the fridge.

Sugar and sweetener packets are beside the cups.

Ingredient packages are available to read.

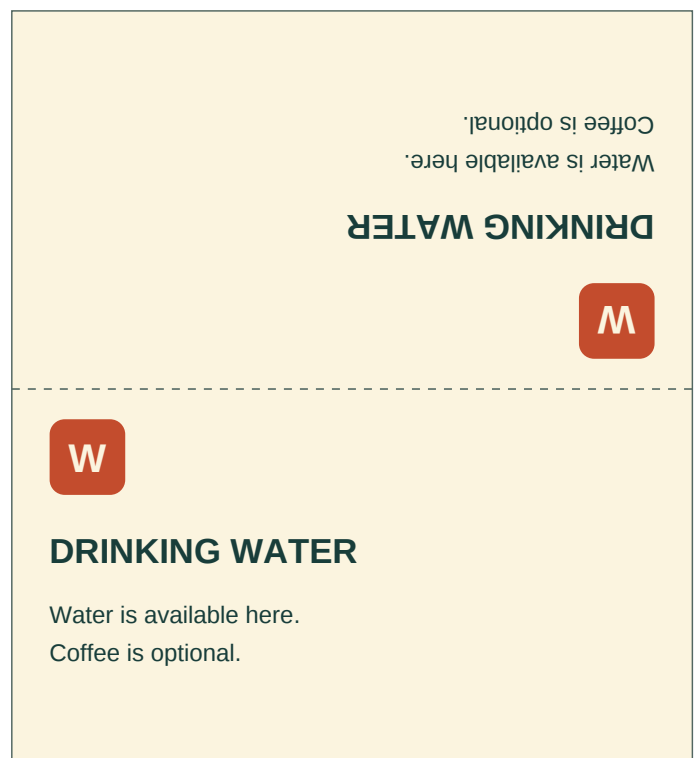

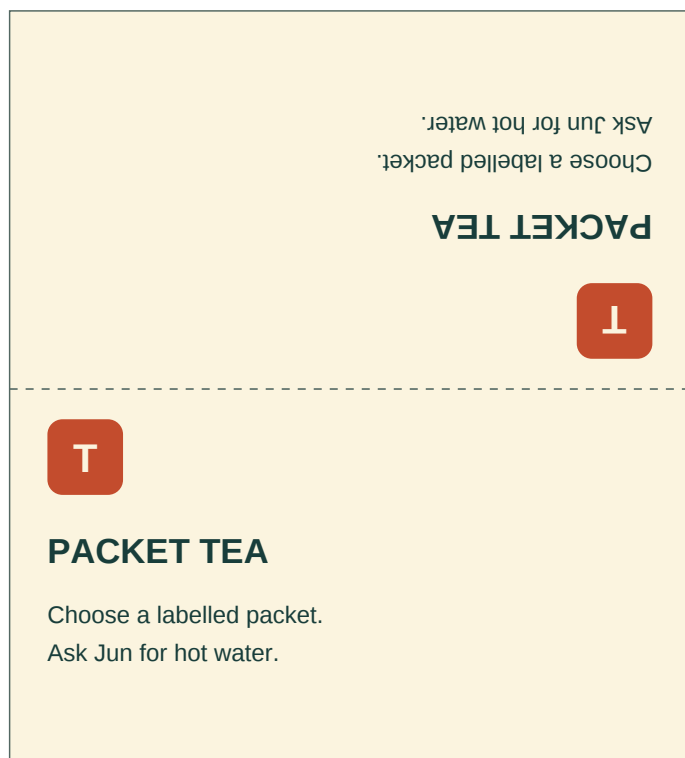

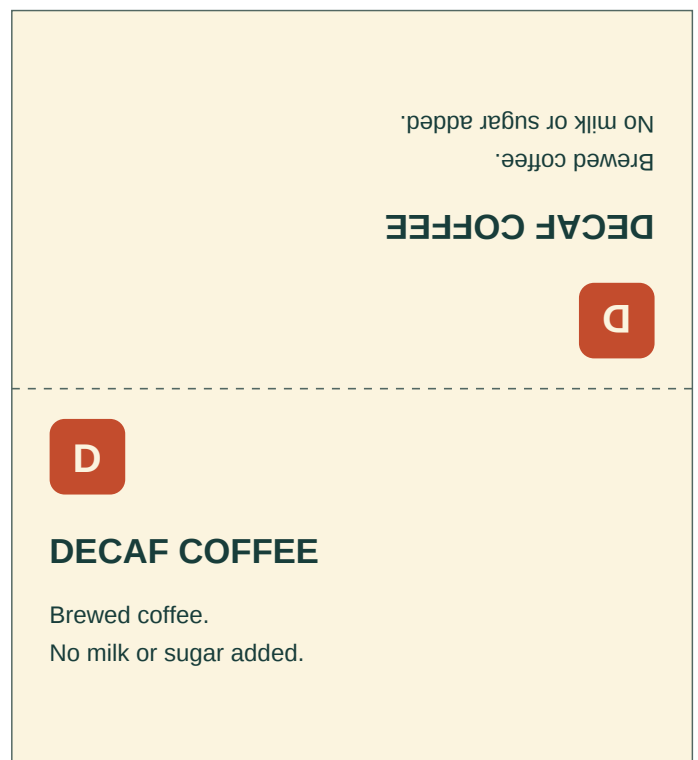

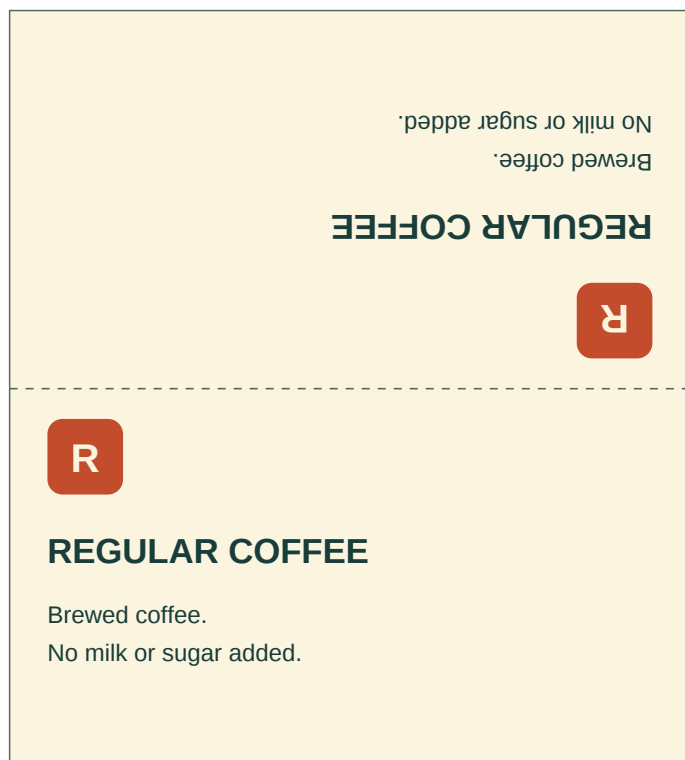

Follow the card beside each drink; a choice may finish.

Jun hosts. Mira watches the coffee table.

Bring a question to either of us. There is no need to order coffee.

FOUR MATCHING TABLE CARDS

Cut solid outlines. Fold dashed lines. Each face is 90 x 50 mm.

50 mm check: print at 100%, then measure.

WHEN REGULAR COFFEE FINISHES

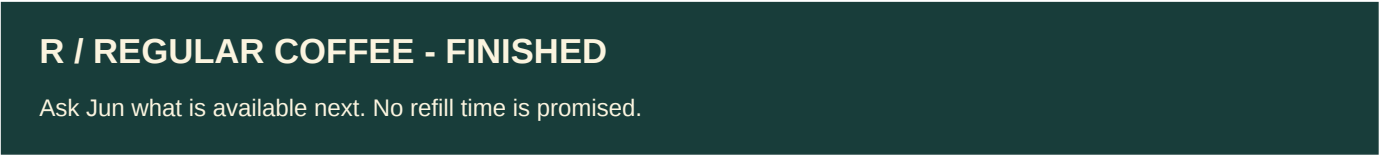

Two pieces change together: the menu row and the table card.

MIRA'S ACTION

- 1. Take the empty regular carafe out of service.
- 2. Put this finished card where that carafe stood.
- 3. Cover the regular row on the menu below.
- 4. Tell Jun. Do not relabel the decaf carafe.

MENU COVER STRIP / 182 x 20 mm

This strip covers only the regular row on page 1. The decaf, tea and water rows stay visible in this fictional moment. Their own supplies still need checking; a printed menu cannot observe them.

If another regular batch is actually ready, first confirm its identity. Then return the R ready card with that carafe and remove the menu cover strip. Never change a drink name to hide a shortage.

50 mm check: print at 100%, then measure.
